Hi Andrea,

As you probably know, Emerson (and maybe Pembina?) POE(s) is/are being blocked by protesters this morning.

I'm forwarding two emails we've received thus far, from companies whose shipments have been affected. We plan simply to acknowledge their concerns, and share some of the CBSA lines that Pam Lambo has provided. If you have other responsive advice, please let me know. MNPLS will also track the evolving situation in traditional and on social media.

I wanted to flag a query raised in the second email, where the company, Puris, indicates that they have applied (in the past) for permits to alternate ports, and has been denied. I will go back to the company for more information. We know that not every port in this region is set up for commercial traffic. Do you have any information about the availability of alternate ports, perhaps on an interim/emergency basis during this situation, permits notwithstanding?

Thanks very much,
Dani
